COWLITZ ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL
PRESENTS LOCAL BAND:

KEEP YOUR DAY JOB

In the case of rain, performance will be moved inside to Johnston Ridge Observatory

Last chance this year to see the new Johnston Ridge Observatory Amphitheater!

Join us for the final performance of a three-part concert series at the new Johnston Ridge Observatory Amphitheater. Enjoy up close views of Mount St. Helens while enjoying family-friendly performances. Keep Your Day Job is a group of health care providers from St. John Medical Center that plays Classic and Contemporary Rock and Country. It keeps them smart, snappy and wise. Food and soft drinks will be available for purchase.

Band: Keep Your Day Job
Date: September 1st
Where: Johnston Ridge Observatory Amphitheater
Time: 6:30 pm
Directions: Johnston Ridge Observatory is located 52 miles east of Castle Rock, WA along State Road 504. The amphitheater is located behind the main observatory building.
